

Biosketch : Dr. Jean-Yves ORTHOLAND.

Jean-Yves is currently the CEO of Edelris, which he co-founded in 2005. Under his leadership, together with the management team, the company has grown from a start-up with a few employees to an SME serving clients across the globe.

He served the Lyon BioPôle board, where he was an elected member (2012-16) representing the SMEs. Prior to Edelris, he explored and pioneered innovative Hit-generation technologies across discovery project teams, first at Rhône-Poulenc (1993-97), then at Merck KGaA in Lyon (1997-2002) and on the US east coast as an expatriate (2002-04).

Jean-Yves worked as an undergraduate at Sheffield University (Nobel Laureate 2016 Prof. J. F. Stoddart). He holds a Ph.D. from Lyon University/Rhône-Poulenc (Dr.Greiner) and a post-doc from Harvard Dept of Chemistry and Chemical Biology (Prof. G.L.Verdine). He has been for several years an advisor at the Société de Chimie Thérapeutique.
